The Business Review welcomes original empirical and theoretical papers in all areas of Accounting, Finance, Management, Marketing and Economics dealing with the developed and developing markets for Volume 16 Issue 2 (July -December 2021).

The articles should be original and provide interesting empirical or theoretical insight to the readers. We encourage authors to test interesting management and economics sciences related hypothesis in the context of Pakistan. However, papers dealing with developed and developing markets are also accepted for publication.
